PASTOR'S PAGE

When the Day of Pentecost had come, they [the disciples] were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. (Acts 2:1-4)

"In the story of Pentecost, the author of Luke-Acts gives focus and frame to the lives of the disciples. While there is no telling to whom the disciples will be sent, the ways in which the disciples will bear witness to the good news of Jesus, or how they disciples will be empowered, equipped, and surprised as they follow where Jesus leads, the Spirit's presence and power will be with them. When the Spirit "calls, gathers, enlightens, and makes holy," as Martin Luther says, Jesus disciples are crucified and raised, shaped and shaken for relationship with the wider world in ways that are authentic and vulnerable." (Sundays and Seasons Year C 2019, Augsburg Fortress)

As I think about the Season after Pentecost, the quote from next year's edition of Sundays and Seasons, in particular the part about how the disciples have no way of knowing how it is they will be sent into the world to proclaim the good news, that struck me. It did so because I think it's the same way with each of us.

When we get up each morning we have no way of knowing how the Spirit might speak to us that day, or what the Spirit might call us to do. It might speak to us in the simple beauty of creation; the vibrant colors of the garden flowers, the song of birds in the back yard, or the warmth of the sun after a long winter, each inviting us to enjoy God's creation, care for and give thanks for it. It might also speak to us in the need of another for support, comfort, and compassion in the midst of a difficult time, encouraging us to be present with them in their need. Or, the Spirit could call us to something more difficult or complicated, to be "shaped and shaken for relationship [I would say in life-giving relationship] with the wider world," and who knows what form that might take or where it might lead you – to the street corner or half way around the world.

The point is, no matter how the Spirit might speak to or call us, we are empowered by the Spirit to proclaim, do, and be the gospel in ways that constantly surprise us. I'm reminded of something Susan often tells me after explain my plans for the day. "Make sure you leave room for God's plan." What we need to do is be open to those surprises.

The Season after Pentecost is that time in the church year when scripture is devoted to Jesus' life, ministry and mission; the time when we are given the opportunity to learn how we might follow his lead, called and enlightened, to be the Body of Christ in the world and open to the work of the Spirit.

I know, its summer, a time for vacations, family gatherings, and trips "up nort" that may take us away from worship more often than it does during the rest of the year. Those are good things. God also calls us to a Sabbath time of rest. But while you're away, remember who and whose you are, and keep your eyes and ears open to what the Spirit may be calling you to do and be. You might just be surprised at the opportunities.

And, if you're away from home and not able to worship at Immanuel or Wilson at times this summer, take the opportunity to worship where you are and enjoy the experience of a new worship setting.

Blessings,
Pastor Bob

Letter from Sam Campeau, Luther Point Bible Camp Executive Director: Greetings from Luther Point Bible Camp. Winter was long this year, but spring is upon us as is Summer Camp! Before we know it Luther Point Bible Camp will be filled with hundreds of people experiencing God's love for them through Bible studies, worship, games, campfires and much more.

As Luther Point continues to move into the future we continue to need your prayer and support.

These past years have seen a lot of transition at Luther Point, but through it all the Holy Spirit has been in the middle of it guiding our camp, the staff and the Board of Directors. Through these changes the ministry of camp continues to move forward as do the facilities. In the past six months the Chapel has been painted, Luther Lodge has been updated, the Retreat Center has been painted, one new cabin roof has been put on, new chairs were purchased for the dining hall and the dining hall floor is being replaced as I write this.

All these projects have been done to keep up with maintenance at the camp along with the need to give a "facelift" to certain areas. We have been blessed with wonderful donors who support Luther Point both financially and with their time and talents. There are many up-front costs that go with preparing camp for the summer; so individual, congregation, special, and organizational gifts are much needed and appreciated this time of the year.

We continue to live into the commandment Jesus gives to, "make disciples of all nations." Everyone who passes through Luther Point is touched by the Holy Spirit, changed for the better and experiences God.

I am excited to see what God has in store for us here at Luther Point and how he will continue to use this place and its staff to further the Kingdom.

God's Peace,
Sam Campeau, Executive Director

5 Pray our church continues to respond to the needs of Syrian refugees through the presence and work of The Lutheran World Federation and other partners, that people who have been displaced from their homes and countries devastated by conflict and war have shelter, food, access to water and sanitation facilities, education and skills training, psychosocial support and other services; pray for an end to this humanitarian crisis and a lasting diplomatic resolution of this conflict.

6 We ask God to stir in us humility, wisdom and eagerness to proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord through our faith and all we do.

7 Remember in prayer leaders and delegates gathered for the Central States, Central/Southern Illinois and New England synod assemblies, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and encourage them for God's work in the world and growing the church.

9 Remember in prayer leaders and delegates gathered for the Northwestern Ohio, Northeastern Ohio, Northeastern Pennsylvania and Virginia synod assemblies, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and encourage them for God's work in the world and growing the church.

10 We pray the Holy Spirit will equip and inspire us to live lives that can't be ignored or go unnoticed, lives that cause people to ask who we are, what motivates us and how they too can share in our faith, joy and hope – not for our own recognition, gratification or legacy, but for God's glory.

11 Vacation Bible schools, day camps and outdoor ministries share the good news of God's love through Jesus Christ with children and youth in neighborhoods and communities across the country. Pray for the Spirit to inspire and equip leaders, volunteers and outdoor ministry staff in their work with young people, that their impact will be deep and enlivening.

12 We ask God to grant us courage, wisdom and persistence in fighting racism, working for reconciliation and healing, and recommitting our church to work for racial justice and inclusion, to work against white privilege, and to be a church that truly welcomes all.

13 Give thanks for the service and witness of the ELCA missionaries and eight young adults serving in the Young Adults in Global Mission program in Israel, Jerusalem/West Bank, Jordan and Palestine, working with our companions to grow the church, support Lutheran schools and engage in issues of peacemaking, reconciliation and interfaith dialogue.

17 Ask God to help us be attentive and receptive when we listen to parables, stories, metaphors and artistic expressions that catch us off guard, break through our assumptions, connect faith to daily life and deepen our understanding of God's truth and wisdom.

18 Remember in prayer parents and children during the summer months, a time when challenges of child care, hunger and meaningful, safe activities for youth can be complicated and acute; pray for wisdom and inspiration in creating services, programs and activities that support and strengthen families in your community.

19 Peace Not Walls is an ELCA campaign working for justice and peace in Palestine and Israel. Ask God to bless and further our work in partnership with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land, The Lutheran World Federation and The National Interreligious Leadership Initiative on the Middle East to promote dignity, respect for human rights, mutual understanding among religions, healing and reconciliation in the Holy Land.

20 It's sometimes tempting to underestimate our influence and impact in the world as children of God, followers of Jesus. Ask God to encourage us through the presence of the Holy Spirit to be confident and bold in bearing the good news of Jesus Christ and living, acting and advocating for the well-being of all people and communities.

21 The ELCA and The Episcopal Church are committed to prayer, fasting and advocacy addressing cuts to public programs that are vital to hungry people who are living in poverty. Remember to pray for these concerns, our leaders and people in need on the 21st of each month through December 2018.

22 Remember in prayer the congregations, youth, parents, leaders and synods preparing for and traveling to the ELCA Youth Gathering in Houston.

23 Give thanks to God for the grace, new life and purpose we receive in baptism, and pray that remembering our baptism serves to keep us grounded in the good news of our salvation and call to join one another in doing God's work in the world.

24 Pray for young people of color and those whose primary language is other than English who are gathered for the Multicultural Youth Leadership Event in Houston to celebrate their uniqueness, immerse themselves in Scripture, serve in the community, learn from teachers and elders, spread joy in fellowship and praise God who makes us one in the body of Christ.

25 Pray that The tAble, a pre-event to the ELCA Youth Gathering, blesses and empowers young people who live with a range of physical, cognitive and emotional disabilities that they might grow as faithful, wise and courageous witnesses.

26 Offer up prayers filled with thanks and praise for God's love, power and wondrous works for the benefit of humankind.

27 Remember in prayer the thousands of youth and adults beginning their experience of learning, worship, witness, celebration and service at the ELCA Youth Gathering in Houston.

28 Give thanks for the 12 ELCA missionaries serving in Tanzania with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania and its health care and education programs, theological education for leaders, and water resources and development work throughout East Africa.

29 Peter and Paul, Apostles Responding to God's call to follow and give witness to the good news of Jesus Christ, Peter and Paul left the familiarity of their occupations to become apostles who shared the gospel through their witness, preaching and writing. We ask God to so inspire us to be faithful and bold followers, witnesses and leaders sharing the light of Christ in the world.

30 Many seasonal workers – of all ages – serve behind the scenes and in roles with little recognition or appreciation during the summer. Give thanks to God for their labor and contributions to the community and ask the Spirit to move us to regard them with respect, gratitude, generosity and mutual hospitality.
